Title: Bylaws Change in Regards to Speaker of the Senate
Sponsor: John Gosselin, Atwater Senator
Date: 3-19-18

Whereas, the Speaker of the Senate is currently a position filled by a Senator,

Whereas, occupying this position makes fair consideration of proposals difficult to achieve,

Whereas, the Chief of Staff regularly attends meetings,

Therefore, be it resolved,

That, the Middlebury College Student Government Association Bylaws, section II subsection A be changed to:

The Chief of Staff is responsible for carrying out and implementing all elements of the President's agenda. The Chief of Staff supervises the Cabinet officers and serves as Senate Parliamentarian, including acting as the Speaker of the Senate. The Chief of Staff develops, keeps current, and publicizes an official codification of the SGA Constitution and Bylaws. The Chief of Staff is responsible for other miscellaneous tasks as delegated from the President.
